We love St. Eugene School. From the very beginning our family has felt welcomed. It is truly a family of its own. The smaller environment allows each child to have their own identity where almost every teacher and staff member knows them by name. Each teacher we have had has been absolutely fabulous and our girls love school and learning. There is a strong focus on academics and learning but also intangibles like values, respect, manners, service to others and of course, faith. The Guardian Angel program pairs older children with the younger ones so they have a "buddy" to help show them the ropes. Our girls have formed tight bonds with children at school of all ages and it makes me feel so good to know they are loved and someone is looking out for them. We feel so fortunate to have SES in our neighborhood. Oh and I LOVE the uniforms.
